

Wednesday, November 12, 2003

[✉ Email this story | 🖨 Print this story]

Archives

Bookstore gets special guest

In town for a Chico State University performance, entertainer Garrison Keillor found time in his schedule to help Heather and Aaron Lyon celebrate the opening of their new bookstore downtown. Lyon Books and Learning Center opened Saturday at 121 W. Fifth St., offering new and used books, gifts and tutoring programs for youngsters. Author Keillor is best known as the host of the Prairie Home Companion radio show. Apparently the owners researched Keillor's schedule, sending him a sincere letter, asking if he might be available.

Author/Storyteller Garrison Keillor answers questions from a standing room only crowd during a booksigning at Lyon Books & Learning Center in Chico Tuesday. Husa foto

(Bill Husa/Enterprise-Record)